

Save the date !

Nantes Pelvic floor Day ... June 30th 2018

Dear colleagues and fellows in coloproctology, new frontiers in pelvic floor disorders will be overviewed along a full day intensive course with the colorectal team of Nantes university. We will offer you experts in every fields of colorectal surgery from Europe to attend didactic conferences. Patient assessment, Multidisciplinary team, Tips and tricks and videos sessions will be discussed along interactive sessions with our scientific panel.

Looking forward to welcome you in Nantes to share ocean's wind and experience in modern colorectal surgery

Guillaume Meurette and Paul-Antoine Lehur

Organisation committee

Prof Guillaume Meurette (Nantes) / Prof Paul-Antoine Lehur (Nantes)

Contact, registration:

Sandrine.lemasson@chu-nantes.fr

Hotel Radisson blu Nantes

programme

Special experts chairmen

Prof Bruno Roche (Geneva, Switzerland)

Prof Klaus Matzel (Erlangen, Deutschland)

Prof Eric Frampas (Nantes, France)

Morning session (10h00-12h30) Chair Jean-Michel Garnier / Paul-Antoine Lehur

1 Welcome Introduction (Guillaume Meurette)

2 Pelvic floor disorders: anatomy dysfunction and functional disorders : How to assess the patient complaints (Dr Emilie Duchalais, Nantes)

3 Imaging the pelvic floor: Tips and tricks to understand the anatomy and dynamic movements (Prof Eric Frampas)

4 Surgery for pelvic floor disorders, the keys for success ! (Prof Bruno Roche)

Afternoon session (14h00-16h30) Chair Eric Mirallié / Guillaume Meurette

5 Clinical case of multidisciplinary discussion (Dr Jean Michel Garnier, Nantes)

6 Sacral nerve stimulation: Definitely the best option for fecal incontinence ? (Prof Klaus Matzel)

7 Conference: Artificial bowel sphincter a myth or just a question of time ? (Paul-Antoine Lehur, Nantes)

8 Didactic Video sessions:

* LVMR (Mrs Annabelle Lemoult, resident)

* Perineal approach of rectal prolapse (Mr Farouk Drissi resident)

* Sacral nerve stimulation (Mr Maxime Gerard resident)

* Sphincterorraphy (Mrs Marie de Montrichard chief resident)

End of the session